'Eek! That table just moved!'

Starting this month, a plucky Fate & Fortune reader gets to join a spooky ghost hunt and report back on the grisly goings-on

September's reader report comes from Karen Johnson, 48, a customer services adviser from Kent.

Spooky night out: Ghost hunt at The Carpenters Arms, Eastling, Kent.

Cost: £41 per person, inc. buffet and hot drinks.

Duration: 6 hours.

Rating: 10 out of 10.

Full of excitement, me and my daughter Carly, 23, turned up at The Carpenters Arms at 11pm. After a buffet we met the Ghost Search UK team, which included several mediums, a camera crew and an expert on the paranormal.

Flying tables

Donna, the team's founder, split us into two groups of five, each led by a medium. Our first activity was 'table tipping'. We placed our hands gently on a heavy pub table, and Donna asked spirit to move it. Suddenly, the table started sliding across the room. It even moved several metres when a young lad was sitting on it, yet he must have weighed at least 11 stone! It was incredible.

The camera crew took photos and uploaded them on to a computer, which revealed hundreds of orbs in the room.

A ghost called Rose

When we held a seance in one of the bedrooms, I felt a presence around us. We all jumped when two loud bangs echoed through the room. Donna made contact with the ghost of a young girl called Rose, who'd worked as a prostitute and tragically had her throat slit.

Suddenly I felt my arms being lifted up, and I knew it was Rose. Each time I forced my arms down, Rose's ghost lifted them up. It felt weird but thrilling. Everyone felt Rose move our arms or push us.

Verdict: A great night out, and we arrived home on a real high. It gave us physical evidence ghosts exist, and there was lots of good food and coffee.
